NUMBER OF MEASURES

Are Expected to Be Taken
Up Next Week—Kramer
Investigating Committee
Hears Several Witnesses.Columbus, O., Jan. 29.—"Next Wednesday the special session of the legislature, will adjourn."This is the message which Speaker
Swain carried to Governor Cox
today. "I am quite certain the session will not last longer," said the speaker. "We will adjourn then
to meet a week later for a day only,
when bills will be signed. This is my personal prediction and I believe it will be found correct."With the announcement of Speaker
Swain today, that the Mills bill,
which would amend the Longworth Act so as to provide for the sale of bonds of small denominations by municipalities for public utilities,
would not be acted upon in the house this afternoon, but would be made a special order for early next week, went glimmering the prospect of consideration by the general assembly this week of any of the more important measures.Both houses are to hold short sessions tomorrow morning giving attention only to miscellaneous business then adjourn until Monday evening, according to the plan announced today. Most important of the measures to be considered by the lower house this afternoon is the Guthery bill which would allow state banks to participate in the federal reserve system. If an amendment which has been prepared by Representative Terrell, of Cuyahoga is offered and adopted state
banks will not get the power to act as executors and trustees. Some of the bankers are said to have endorsed this amendment.In the most important bill on the calendar for today is that of Senator Friebolin of Cuyahoga, which would make schools as social centers and for public meetings.Representative Robert Black of Hamilton county, author of a rival measure to the Guthery bill, said
today he does not expect to ask the house to substitute his bill, but he will try to have the Guthery bill amended so that the required reserve of all state banks, instead of only those which enter the federal reserve bank system shall be cut from 15 to 12 per cent. As the bill stands now, state banks in the larger cities of Ohio which are not admitted to the reserve system
would be given unfair advantage
over those which do not enter, Mr.
Black said.The concurrence of the bankers
in the elimination of a proposition
that they be allowed to act as executor came today after Superintendent of Banks Lattanner and the attorney general's department had expressed the opinion that inclusion of the executor feature might invalidate the entire bill.No members of the legislature received any money from the government's contingent fund in connection with work done in investigating alleged referendum frauds, according to a statement made before the Kramer investigating committee to-

STRIKERS IN THE
COOPER COUNTRYLansing, Mich., Jan. 29.—Labor leaders of Michigan holding official positions in almost every vocation
affiliated with the Michigan state Federation of Labor, united their forces in a conference at the state capital today, to decide upon a plan
for raising funds to assist the striking copper miners of the Calumet region, in continuing the industrial war which has been waged since last July.Executive officials of the state federation authorized a statement
denying a rumor that the conference might consider the advisability of recommending a statewide strike.
It was said practically all of the delegates were opposed to such action.TRAIN SNEAK
ON B. & O. IS BOUND OVERZanesville, Jan. 29.—Harry Warner, who was alleged to have robbed passengers on a Baltimore &
Ohio train early yesterday morning
was bound over to the grand jury
in the sum of $500 on two charges, robbery and pocketpicking. The other four men who were arrested
were not accomplices of Warner and were fined $5 each for being drunk
which they paid.TEMPERATURE TAKES DROP
OF 50 DEGREESChicago, Jan. 29.—The thin edge of the cold wave in the Missouri valley touched Chicago at noon today and a drop of fifty degrees
from last night's spring-like mark
of sixty was officially forecasted.
During the forenoon the mercury
receded 20 degrees.A drop of from 20 to 25 degrees
was reported from Kansas, Oklahoma and Western Missouri.NEWSPAPERS HAVE RIGHT TO NEWS OF PUBLIC OFFICIALSChillicothe, Jan. 29.—That a newspaper has a property right in news relating to the actions of public officials was a principle of law laid down yesterday by an Ohio court.
The decision was rendered by Judge John W. Goldsberry of Chillicothe in the common pleas court of Ross
county.Judge Goldsberry made permanent a temporary restraining order in the case of the Scioto Gazette company against Robert D. Alexander, auditor of Ross county, enjoining the defendant from preventing employees of the plaintiff from being present at the meetings of the county commissioners.Judge Goldsberry held that if it appears that a public official interferes or threatens to interfere with reporters in their efforts to obtain in a lawful manner news relating to the actions of public officials, such interference and any attempts at intimadation can be enjoined if it can be shown that the paper would suffer material loss in subscribers by its inability to secure such news.Many a fellow who is of no use
on earth is regarded by the girls as being just heavenly.DISCLAIMS

BAND OF BLACKMAILERS

Turned Up After Three
Youths Tell of Series of Crimes—Youth of 19 Says
He Planted 40 Bombs.New York, Jan. 29.—Angelo Sylvestro, a 23 year old Italian, on trial charged with being the leader of a band that terrorized the East Side
with bomb outrages, took the stand in his own defense this afternoon. He repudiated the confession which detectives say they had obtained from him and on cross-examination dis-claimed anything more than passing acquaintance with Anthony Sadatits
and other youths who started court
and spectators yesterday and the day
before with stories of the gang's operations.Angelo Sylvestro is charged with being a member of a gang of blackmailers that used bombs to enforce demands for money. Three youths have confessed to their part in scores
of crimes under the sign of the black-
hand and will testify when the state finishes its case against Sylvestro
late today.Sylvestro's case created little or no interest when it began several days ago, but since has furnished a series
of crime stories—confessions of witnesses for the state—that laid bare
the workings of an organized band of blackmailers.Anthony Sadatits, a youth of 19
years old, the latest sensation of the trial, yesterday told of his employment by a gang of blackmailers during which he planted about 40 bombs,
receiving from $1 to $20 for each job.
This story rivals that of Alfred Lehman and Rocco Pucelli, who preceded him on the stand. He was born in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn, he said, had never attended school, and committed his first serious offense—burglary—in 1909. Since that time, he confessed to thirty burglaries, forty bomb outrages,
thirty horse and wagon thefts, and
one murderous assault.IS CONDEMNED TO SOLITARY
CONFINEMENTNew York, Jan. 29.—Madame
Catherine Breshkovskaya, the Russian revolutionary leader, has been punished for her recent attempt to escape from Siberia, according to word which reached sympathizers
here today, with a sentence of eighteen months in solitary confinement.It was early in December last year, that Mme. Breshkovskaya,
"the grandmother of the Russian revolution," made a second unsuccessful attempt to escape from the perpetual exile to which she was sentenced in March, 1910.She had been permitted to go to dinner under police escort at the lodging of a fellow exile in the village of Kirensk, up under the Arctic circle. She remained until evening when a companion, Andreff, dressed in her clothing emerged from the house, pretending to be a sick woman. Accompanied by the police,
the accomplice hobbled to the lodging of Mme. Breshkovskaya where he remained. This was on Dec. 1,
and it was not until Dec. 4, that the escape was discovered. All of the machinery for pursuit was put to work with the result that Mme.
Breshkovskaya dressed as a man was intercepted in the Siberian wilds and taken back to Kirensk. Mme. Bresh-kovskaya is 70 years old and more than twenty-five years of her life have been spent in prison or in exile. Her father was a nobleman and landowner in the province of Chienkoff. She is well known in the United States
where she has visited.Her present exile followed a trial
for revolutionary conspiracy that attracted public attention in many countries.The devil doesn't care how often

he can use him the rest of the Commander of the Atlantic FleetAdmiral Beatty is a gallant sea-

dog with a career that harks back over twenty-two years of service on the briny deep and a reputation for enforcement of discipline that would do credit to the traditional type of army martinet. Admiral Beatty has high traditions of the navy, is a good Episcopalian, a genial clubRESPITE IS GRANTED TO HUMPHREYSColumbus, Jan. 29.—A respite of 60 days was granted by Governor
Cox today to Leslie Humphreys under sentence to be electrocuted at midnight tonight for the murder of Samuel E. Kelley of Lanark, W.
Va.Humphreys at one time confessed
that he murdered Kelley and robbed
his body of several hundred dollars
which the latter had received from a recent sale of some property. Latter he repudiated the confession
and insisted that the killing was the result of a drunken fight. Kelley had come to Columbus on a Norfolk & Western train on which Humphreys was a brakeman and was killed
in a lonely part of the railroad
yards of this city.Relatives of Humphreys have enlisted the sympathy of some prominent men in Columbus in an appeal
for a commutation of Humphreys's death sentence. Members of the "old newsboy" association including some leading business men are said
to have urged the governor to exercise clemency.Governor Cox it was said, was too busily engaged in connection with matters pending before the legislature to give attention at this time to the plea for commutation and for that reason granted a sixty day respite.MUST PAY $172
PER ACRE FOR
PRISON SITEColumbus, Jan. 29.—The prison
commission which entered condemnation proceedings, in order to secure 1,445 acres of land for a new prison
site will have to pay $250, 245 for it, according to a decision rendered today by the common pleas court at London, O. The commission will hold a meeting here and decide if they are willing to pay that price
for the site.Members of the prison site commission declared today after hearing
the verdict of award for the John Ellsworth farm, Madison county which the state has considered for a new penitentiary site, they may look elsewhere in the state for a place to build. They consider the award excessive.The commission will meet with Gov. Cox tomorrow and may take definite action. A new trial may be asked.The jury also awarded a damage
of $4,165 for 295 acres of residue
at $20 an acre which it was claimed
would be damaged by being separated from good roads facilities.You can generally make a married woman happy by convincing her
that she is a martyr.FIRE DESTROYS BUSINESS BLOCK
IN MANCHESTERManchester, N. H., Jan. 29.—The Merchants Exchange Building, the most important business block in the retail center of the city was burned today. The loss will exceed $500,000.The building was a four story brick. In it were located the largest department store in the state and several other big concerns including the Hillsborough County Savings Bank.The fire originated on the fourth floor and spread rapidly. Two firemen were injured by a falling wall.
The fire necessitated the closing of the city's electric light and power plant causing a temporary
business and industrial paralysis.BOY CONFESSES TO THEFT OF PARCEL
POST PACKAGESCleveland, Jan. 29.—Postoffice inspectors believe they have the key to a series of wholesale thefts of valuable merchandise, from parcel post packages in Cleveland in the last three months in the arrest Thursday morning of William C. Schopen, 18.Schopen has been employed as an assistant driver and watcher on one of the screened wagons which carry parcels from the postoffice to the depots.The boy confessed to Postoffice inspectors that he stole a watch
which had been mailed from John C.
Hueter, jeweler, to the Duerber Watch company at Canton, O.Parcels have been missed since long before Christmas and the postoffice
inspectors have a big file in the federal buildings of empty cartons,
wrappers and torn bundles which have been found in the streets between the postoffice and the depots.The thieves evidently have been rifling the packages and throwing the wrappers away.Suspicion was directed against Schopen when his brother John was arrested in Elvira a few days ago on a charge of rifling freight cars and inspectors Ella and Cimmerman were sent to Elvira to investigate. While they were out of town William Schopen
quit his position at the Cleveland
postoffice.Inspector Owens went to his room
and found the watch, a suit of clothes,
an overcoat and a hat from which all marks of identification had been erased. The watch was traced by its factory number.FIRE DESTROYS A STOCK FARM BARN
BURNING 19 HORSESMarxville, Ohio, Jan. 29.—Nineteen horses were burned to death in a fire which early today destroyed
the large barn on the stock farm of Newton Graham, a mile east of this place. The total loss is estimated at $5,000, with no insurance.The fire is thought to have been caused by tramps sleeping in the barn.STATE HEALTH EXHIBIT

INTERESTING LECTURE ON TUBERCULOSISMayor R. C. Bigbee Presided at Opening Lecture Wednesday Evening—State Exhibit Brought to Newark
Under the Auspices of the Federation of Women's Clubs—Advocate's Better Health Contest is Exciting Favorable Comment and Number Will Try for the Cash Prizes Offered.In his address at the state public health exhibit in the Y. M.
C. A. building Wednesday evening, R. G. Paterson, Ph. D., chief of the division of tuberculosis, state board of health, brought out the following interesting points about the "great white plague" in Ohio.
In Ohio, there are 20 deaths from tuberculosis every day
throughout the year.According to official statistics in 1912, there were 6,760 deaths in Ohio from all forms of tuberculosis; in 1911, 7,093 deaths; in 1910, 7,179 deaths, and in 1909, 6,844 deaths. The number of deaths in Ohio from all causes total about 65,000 each year.Thus it can be seen that one out of every ten deaths in Ohio is due to this one disease—tuberculosis.One-third of all deaths between the ages of 15 and 50 in this state are due to tuberculosis!—The period of greatest productivity of the individual.The average length of illness in tuberculosis is three years.
It is estimated that the actual economic loss per year to the people of the State of Ohio due to tuberculosis is about $25,000,000.Newark and Licking county people greeted the state public health exhibit
with an attendance estimated conservatively at 600, Wednesday afternoon and night—the largest opening day ever experienced in the history of the exhibit. Director Spencer and Dr. R. G. Paterson, the first lecturer, were enthusiastic with the interest manifested by local people in the matter of better health conditions.People thronged the exhibit rooms in the Y. M. C. A. all afternoon and up to closing hour at night, while the auditorium in which Dr. Paterson delivered his lecture on tuberculosis,
illustrated with clear and striking
moving picture views of conditions
bearing on the spread and prevention of the dread plague, was filled to capacity. The film, entitled "Hope,"
was used by Dr. Paterson, with Mr.
Spencer assisting as operator.There appears to be considerable doubt whether the quarters occupied by the exhibit will accommodate the crowds that are certain to visit the display and lectures during the week's stay here.The exhibit is composed of a varied collection of enlarged photographs
of conditions throughout the state
leading to the spread of infection and contagion. Many of these views show
the horrible results of carelessness on the part of employers, housekeepers
and property owners, as well as the dire conditions resulting from improper physical care and hereditary infection. The most striking illustrations provided in the exhibit are miniature reproductions of buildings
and grounds, showing defects in sanitation by means of cross-section views modelled in relief. For instance, a miniature barn and stock lot is shown, with all appurtenances just as they may be seen in hundreds of country places. Adjoining this is a miniature model of a sanitary stablewith sanitary stock pens. There are numerous other models equally illustrative of the flagrant violations of the laws of sanitation practiced nearly everywhere, conditions which the state board of health is seeking to correct, by means of a campaign of public education.In the lecture room Wednesday night, the gathering was addressed
briefly by Mrs. Frank L. Johnson, president of the Federation of Women's clubs, under whose auspices the state exhibit is brought to Newark.
She outlined, briefly, the object of the organization in introducing this subject to Newark people, after which she presented Mayor R. C. Bigbee, who officially welcomed the representatives of the state health department
with their exhibit, and urged co-operation on the part of Newark citizens in making the campaign for better local conditions a success. Mayor Bigbee presented Dr. Paterson.Mr. Patterson said in part:
"Many people today have the idea
that tuberculosis is a modern disease.
Much was known of it as early as 400
B. C., when Hippocrates, the father of medicine, gave a very good description of the disease. Of course, the cause was not known and a persistent effort was made for centuries
to explain this.""It remained for Dr. Robert Koch, of Berlin, Germany, to discover the real cause. He found a tiny germ
and named it the tubercle bacillus.
This germ cannot be seen with the naked eye. It takes a high-power microscope and must be multiplied
1,200 times before it can be distinguished.""This germ breeds and multiplies
in the human body. When in the lungs the disease is called pulmonary tuberculosis or consumption. There are special names for the various

Held for Ransom Says Letter to NewspaperLos Angeles, Jan. 29.—According to an anonymous letter received by a morning paper, Francis Lewis Clark,
the Spokane millionaire, is being held for ransom of $75,000 by "blackmailers" in or near this city. Clark disappeared from Santa Barbara January 17, after seeing his wife off on a train and was thought to have committed suicide by throwing himself in the ocean.The letter demanding the ransom
for Clark's release was addressed to chief of police and dated Los Angeles Jan. 27. It said:"We are holding Millionaire Clark for a ransom of $75,000. State in Examiner if his folks will pay it or not.
He is well taken care of.""Yours, The Blackmailers"
Across the top of the letter was written "Notice. Make prompt reply in the papers as he is very anxious to get out."Those who know Clark intimately
are said to view the latter seriously.
Mrs. Clark was located last night at Paso Robles and over the long distance telephone dictated the following reply to the note, with the request that it be published as demanded in the letter.I want to communicate with you more fully concerning my husband's disappearance. I want to know where the money is to be paid, and in what manner. I want to know the motive that inspired the supposed kidnap-
ing. If my husband is held for ransom
I will entertain the proposition contained in the letter addressed to Chief Sebastian, but before I definitely commit myself, I must know more.
Mrs. Clark did not state whether she thought her husband was actually held by kidnapers.Pennsy Passenger Train
Crashes Into a Freight;
Three People KilledPittsburg, Jan. 29.—Pennsylvania
passenger train No. 19, New York to Pittsburg, was wrecked near Conneaugh, Pa., today, when it ran into a freight train going west. Three members of the freight crew were killed and one injured.The passenger train was running at a high rate of speed when, as it rounded a curve, the engineer saw
the lights of the freight train directly in front. He applied the emergency brakes but the heavy engine
crashed into the caboose, killing A.
L. Ritchey, conductor, of Young-wood, Pa. Alec Lichter, a brakeman, of Youngwood, Pa., and H. C.
Parnell, flagman, of Altoona, Pa.,
and injuring H. W. Todd, brakeman, of Youngwood, Pa.The engine and the mail car on the passenger train were derailed, blocking three tracks. Passengers were tossed about by the force of the collision, but none was seriously hurt.
A heavy fog hung over the valley
and the engineer of the passenger train was unable to see the signals
of the automatic block signal system with which the division is equipped.

GIANT BLAST OF SIX TONS OF DYNAMITE IN CULEBRA CUT—ONE OF THE THRILLS IN LYMAN H. HOWE'S REPRODUCTION OF THE PANAMA CANAL.

Theaters

Howe, Tonight.

It is true that more or less attempts have been made by camera men to film the wonder story of the Panama Canal, but it is universally admitted that Howe's reproduction is the only one recorded which covers the subject adequately. It begins where all others stop.

The frey geysers of Yellowstone Park which act as a "safety valve" for mother earth also constitute a big feature of Howe's new program. At every turn, water is seen boiling furiously either in vats carved by nature or is being ejected to great heights by fierce explosions underneath. Masses of steam rush from openings in the ground. Terrible convulsions of nature ensue and monstrous cauldrons become more and more active until the whole ensemble becomes a veritable inferno. The historic ruins of Pompei in the colors of nature, a visit to Naples and to the Paris Zoo where acquaintance is made with numerous strange animals at close range, the wood-turning industry at Saint Claude, salmon fishing in British Columbia, tunny fishing near Palermo, Sicily, new "symphonies of the sea" and a ride on the Chicago Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad Company's train de luxe "The Olympian" through the Montana Canyon and over the Cascade Mountains in Oregon are a few of the many other features included in the program. At the Auditorium tonight and tomorrow matinee and night.

"Freckles."

An important theatrical offering for the local season is A. G. Delamater's beautiful scenic production of "Freckles," a dramatization by Neil Twomey of Gene Stratton-Porter's widely read novel of the same title. Gene Stratton-Porter, the author of the story, and Messrs. Doubleday, Page & Co., the publishers, have expressed themselves as very much pleased with Neil Twomey's dramatization of the novel. "Freckles," The Eastern Company presenting "Freckles" is positively guaranteed by the management to appear here. This is the same identical cast and scenic production that will be seen in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse and Cleveland. At the Auditorium Saturday matinee and night. Seats now selling.

Scene from "Freckles."

Today in Pugilistic Annals

1907.—Tommy Sullivan and Honey Melody fought a 12-round draw at Lawrence, Mass. Tommy, one of the best of the Sullivan clan, was a boxer in the ring, succeeded Young Corbett as featherweight champion and held the title for four years. In 1907 he began to go back, and Abe Attell fought him to a draw.

The next year Abe defeated him and annexed the featherweight crown. Honey Melody did his best to defeat Joe in the welterweight division, and claimed the title by reason of his defeat of Joe Walcott. Honey was whipped by Joe Thomas, of California, who in turn was defeated by Stanley Ketchel, and the welter title passed to Dixie Kid. 1909.—Jerry McGovern knocked out Jack Ward in the first round at Baltimore. 1904.—Kid Herman defeated Jack McElreath in 20 rounds at Kansas City. 1910.—Johnny Thompson and Tom McCarthy fought a 20-round draw at San Francisco.

ALL ABOARD FOR FARMERS' WEEK.

Interest in the annual Ohio farmers' round-up, or Farmers' Week, which is to be held at Ohio State University during the week of February 2, is state wide. On the program, which is now completed, are many noted experts from the agricultural institutions of Ohio and other states. The number and scope of the many subjects to be covered are such that it will pay any farmer who can possibly make arrangements to go to Columbus to attend this farmers' school. In addition to the extensive program of lectures and demonstrations for the men, there will be an equally attractive Home Makers school for the women who attend. Preparation of foods, home decorating, adaptation of patterns, house planning, home water supply, study and comparison of different kinds of clothing, meat preparation and a meat cutting demonstration are some of the things to be taken up at the Home Makers' school. Many of the lectures will be illustrated and the demonstrations will show much of the latest progress that has been made in the way of farm and home improvement. The entire program will be free.

How to Beautify a Weatherbeaten Face

From Beauty and Health. It's really a simple matter to renovate a face discolored by dirt, wind or cold. Ordinary mercurized wax used like cold cream, will transform the worst old complexion into one of snowy whiteness and velvety softness. It literally peels off the outer veil of surface skin, but so gently, gradually, there's no discomfort, no redness, no skin comes off, not in patches but evenly, in tiny particles leaving no marks. The treatment is so simple, so healthful and so effective, the new complexion is one of captivating loveliness. One ounce of mercurized wax is enough to remove any dry, scaly, red, pimply, freckled, faded or sallow skin. Apply before retiring, washing off with soap and water in the morning.

Many skins wrinkle away with every wind that blows, with heat, worry, etc. An excellent wrinkle-remover, because it tightens the skin, and the skin is relaxed, much like a wash, lotion made as follows: powdered saxolite, 1 or 2 drops of perfume, one-half pint. Put in a glass jar, and use immediately.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys then back hurts and bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleepless and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to the stomach, kidneys and stimulates them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

New Corn Cure A Real Marvel

Guaranteed and Absolutely Painless.

A corn cure that is painless and that will really do the work has finally been discovered. Heretofore, the poor sufferer from corns has been pestered with "drawing" salves and plasters that swell the corns, and has had finally to gouge out his corn and inflict upon himself still greater pain. With Hall's Painless Corn Cure all pain ceases on the first application, and then finally the corn comes right off easily and painlessly. You don't have to dig it out and run the risk of drawing blood, making your corns still more sore or getting blood poison.

Hall's painless Corn Cure is easier to use than any other; it takes a few seconds to apply it. It is guaranteed absolutely in every case. You must be satisfied, or back goes your money.

Lasts longer than several packages of any other corn treatment; and you are sure to get rid of corns and bunions. Sold at 25 cents a bottle at

MIAMI WILL PLAY DENISON THIS EVENING

Granville, Jan. 29.—Miami will be the attraction Thursday evening at Swasey gymnasium. The game is being awaited with a great deal of interest by Denison adherents as everyone well remembers the decisive victory that the downstate institution won on the football field here last fall.

The Oxford eleven was the only Ohio conference team capable of taking Denison's measure, but they did it by the decisive score of 19 to 0. Pierce was the cause of the downfall of Coach Livingston's warriors, as he scored all the points in the game by his stellar work. Four times he booted the ball over the crossbars for field goals, out of six attempts. In addition to this he made the only touchdown of the game. The scene is shifted now from the gridiron to the gymnasium and the big "Red" team representing the Baptist institution will have an opportunity to retrieve the bitter defeat on the gridiron. Pierce will again be a member of the Miami squad and he is achieving as much success in the indoor pastime as he did on the football field.

The downstate five toyed with Ohio University last Saturday evening winning by the one sided score of 49 to 9. This will illustrate the strength of the team, and the contest will be staged in Cleveland hall this evening will no doubt be a warm one. Pierce was the star for Miami against the Athenians as he scored seven field goals for his team. Captain Frouty of the Denison quintet will oppose Pierce at center and the fight for honors will be interesting to watch. The game will be called at 8 o'clock in Cleveland hall.

Denison will present a rearranged lineup. Thiele, who has been playing a steady game at right guard has been shifted to left forward, while Jones has been shifted from left forward to right guard. This change was made by Coach Livingston at the beginning of the week and it is believed the same lineup will be adhered to for the rest of the basketball season.

The change has been contemplated for some time. Recently in the game with Heidelberg after the score was largely in favor of the Baptists, Livingston decided to try Thiele and Jones at the positions he has now placed them. The result was so satisfactory that a shift was made last Monday.

It is thought that the change will materially strengthen Denison's offensive work and at the same time prove an added power to the offense as well. Thiele will make a good forward as he is fast and an accurate shot, while Jones shines on field goals tossed from the center of the floor.

NEWARK CLUB OF DENISON TAKES A HIKE FOR DINNER

[Special to the Advocate.] Granville, Jan. 29.—The Newark club of Denison University walked out to the farm of D. M. Hutcheson north of Granville last evening where a fine dinner was enjoyed. The party started from Burton Hall at 4:30 and after an hour's walk arrived at their destination. During the evening a number of Denison songs were sung and flashlight pictures were taken. The start for Granville was made about 8 o'clock guided by the light of an oil lantern which helped to keep the pedestrians out of the mud to some extent, the college campus was reached about 9 o'clock. Among those present were: Misses Nellie Ballou, Ruth Stewart, Mabel Metz, Sara Walker, Mary Belle McClain, Katherine Long, Jean Humphreys, Selma Hamann, Mary Anderson, Irene Bonshire and Miss Ramey. Messrs. Lester Black, Frederick Chase, Outcree Cheadle, Clyde Adams, Howard Mossman, Calvin Hazelett, R. Yost, E. W. Weiny and John Ward. Miss Lily Belle Sefton chaperoned.

The Phi Gamma Delta fraternity entertained with a dinner Wednesday evening. The local organization of the W. C. T. U. held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Norris Wednesday evening. A report of the national convention of the organization at Asbury Park was given by Mrs. Van Kirk who attended.

William Chamberlin of Dayton arrived in Granville today for a brief visit.

F. Essex was a Columbus visitor Wednesday.

VERDICT FOR W. D. HARRIS IN DAMAGE SUIT

On motion of Attorneys Flory & Flory, counsel for the defendant in the $10,000 damage suit of Thomas Donley vs. Will D. Harris, Judge Fulton Wednesday afternoon instructed the jury to bring in a verdict for Harris. The suit was instituted to collect damages for the death of John Donley, who sustained fatal injuries on a bathing chute in Buckeye Lake park July 4, 1910. The defense showed to the court's satisfaction that Harris was not proprietor of the device on which Donley met death, and was in no wise responsible for its up-keep.

HIS THIRD OFFENSE HE GOES TO WORKS

William Kerr, who made his third appearance before Mayor R. C. Bigbee Thursday morning, drew a ticket to the Columbus workhouse. A fine of 25 cents and costs was assessed and Kerr was ordered committed until the same was paid. He was taken to the works Thursday afternoon by patrolman Hurbaugh who also had charge of Tommy Connor. The officer also takes with him a warrant for the arrest of a Columbus man wanted here.

Looking Far Ahead. "What was the basis of Mr. and Mrs. Fulton's separation?" "Well, you know their baby—the one that was born last month?" "Yes." "Futill said he should go to Yale, and Mrs. F. who is from Boston, insisted on Harvard."—New York Sun.

CITY VISITED BY REGULAR SPRING DAY

Thursday was a typical March day, balmy air, brisk winds and all. With the mercury registering close to 60 degrees Newark people found overcoats and furs burdensome. Some of the more daring even went coatless and though no silhouette skirts were seen on the street, a young man did brave ridicule and appear on the street in a straw hat. He walked bravely west on Main street in the direction of the high school.

Correspondents in other cities are telling of violets, sweet peas, snakes and other harbingers of spring but we haven't the nerve to attempt such claims without more proof than we have at present.

Nevertheless Thursday was probably the mildest January day since 1906, eight years ago, when there were a few days so mild that people sat on their porches on a Sunday afternoon and were comfortable. Boys played ball and a game was played at Wehrle Park between teams picked from local players.

GETTING READY FOR THE COUNTY TAX DEPUTIES

"Merit alone" must be the watchword of district tax assessors in appointing deputies from the eligible list submitted by the state civil service commission, according to a communication received from the state commission by District Assessor William H. Anderson, Thursday. The list of eligibles has not been received here.

It is likely, however, said District Assessor Anderson, that assessors in the county, for about one-half the townships, will be ready for work by February 9, and the balance by the middle of the month. The state civil service commission suggests that the district assessor should have his list of eligibles notified by February 4 in order that they may appear about February 7 for instructions and supplies and be ready to start their rounds February 9.

Owing to the fact that the district assessor is busy getting things in shape for the work of the deputies under the new order of things, there may be some delay in starting the full force of deputies on their work. Under the Warnes law an abstract of land and building values, separated, must be compiled for the district tax assessor from the county auditor's records. District Assessor Anderson and his secretary, R. E. McGonagle, are busy helping to compile these statistics. They have taken the whole of Newark city, while Auditor Jesse Hursey and his deputies are at work on the balance of the county values.

CALL EXTENDED BY CONGREGATION OF BAPTIST CHURCH

After the regular prayer meeting service on Wednesday evening at the Fifth Street Baptist church, the congregation determined upon extending a call to Dr. Stull, pastor of the Baptist church of Troy, to occupy the Newark pulpit.

Dr. Stull was in Newark last Sunday, and his sermons and services greatly impressed his audience. It was then arranged to hold a congregational meeting following the regular prayer meeting and a representative membership was present. All the departments of the church were represented and a unanimous call was extended to the Troy pastor.

It is probable that his acceptance or refusal will be received within the next few days.

IRON TRADE REVIEW.

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 29: The Iron Trade Review today says: Moderate improvement, featured by actual stiffening in prices of several products, a gradually increasing volume of specifications, and more numerous inquiries, continue to be reflected by the iron and steel market. Expressions by officials connected with leading manufacturers are more cheerful, and are not based entirely upon sentiment, as was the case a few weeks ago. One steel bar maker advises that specifications this month exceed those of December by more than 100 per cent., and other bar manufacturers report substantial increases in actual demand. Specifications for sheets, wire and semi-finished steel products have gradually increased in volume since Jan. 1. Mills, now operating between 50 and 60 per cent., will be running at almost full capacity within the next 60 to 90 days, of business maintains its present rate. Steel sheets have been advanced about $2 a ton by the leading interest; wire products have stiffened; open-heart sheet bars are $1 a ton stronger and scrap has shown some strength. Pig iron is active in most centers. Recent sales include 25,000 tons of basic to a St. Louis buyer. Some price irregularity is reported and general conditions are not yet normal, but the tone of the market is considered better than it has been for several months.

ZANESVILLE MAYOR OUSTS DEPARTMENT HEADS; MORE TO GO

Zanesville, Jan. 29.—Mayor W. H. Webster, Republican, dismissed six Democratic heads of sub-departments yesterday and announced that more officials will be cut off shortly. Service Director Roach said last night that if the city employees refused to recognize the new heads of departments he will suspend all of them and fill their places with new men. The deposed heads of departments have hired attorneys and will carry the fight into the courts. The dismissals followed a decision by Attorney General Hogan upholding Mayor Webster's contentions that the old service board was serving illegally. Several of the old superintendents nearly came to blows with the new incumbents this afternoon when the new ones tried to assume their duties.

The new appointees are: Waterworks Superintendent—Fred Haehnlen, to succeed John H. Clapper. Street Superintendent—George W. Morgan, to succeed Henry Reiner. City Civil Engineer—Carl Spencer, to succeed John Dennis. Greenwood Cemetery Superintendent—Wilbur C. Zimmer, to succeed Andrew Huffman. Cemetery Superintendent—Lewis O. Harlan, to succeed Harry Love. Market Master—W. H. Schaum, to succeed Ferdinand Weber.

Horton Will Probated. The will of the late George W. Horton was admitted to probate Thursday and his wife, Fannie M. Horton, and brother, James E. Horton, were appointed executors without bond.

New poultry fanciers are competing for prizes at the Zanesville poultry show which opened Wednesday for a four days' exhibit. Following the first day's scoring prizes were awarded as follows to Newark men: Jackson and Wilson, barred rocks, second cock, second cockerel, first hen, first hen (pullet mating), second pullet (pullet mating) first pen; C. W. Kent, single comb white Leghorns, second hen. L. V. Billman is exhibiting rose comb Rhode Island reds and J. M. Stephens is exhibiting buff Orpingtons. At Upper Sandusky, Luther A. Stream, of Mt. Vernon, a brother of George T. Stream, of Newark, is acting as judge. Hundreds of birds are exhibited and the judge is using the comparison system of awarding prizes instead of the grading system.

26 CANDIDATES ARE INITIATED BY WYOMING GRANGE

At a regular meeting of Wyoming Grange No. 1059 held Wednesday evening in the grange hall at Vanata, twenty-six candidates received the first and second degrees. Following the initiatory work a splendid literary program was given. On Wednesday, Feb. 4, the third and fourth degrees will be conferred on thirty-five candidates.

The Extremes of the Stock Market.

After a long period of scraping along on bed rock bottom, the stock market has advanced. Sentiment on the various exchanges is more hopeful.

The public that watches from afar the doings of the speculators should not think that this is necessarily a favorable time for them to engage in speculation. The cream is never secured by those who buy when hope prevails on Wall street. The time to make money, if ever, is when Wall street is convinced that the country is headed straight for the kennels. A few bargains can then be picked up.

The stock broker sees everything either all sunlight or all pitch black. There are no intermediate shades of twilight.

The man who can risk his whole career on the roulette wheel of stock investments has the gambling spirit. If gamblers were regarded as socially acceptable, he would place his shiny coins on the green cloth.

When he is hopeful, he cannot admit the possibility of clouds and storms. He buys at top level prices. These are based on fictitious valuations. They assume the persistence of flexible money markets, and disregard the yeasting social unrest that must shake the business fabric for a long time.

When this type of man is converted to the "bear" position, he goes to the opposite extreme. He ignores the fundamental common sense of the American people. Depression never goes far before it rights itself.

Wherefore no man is fit to spend a dollar on stock investment who depends much on the dope fed out by these sporting gents. It is as unreliable as tips on the races.

Women and the Newspaper.

If the financial daily newspaper for women, about to be established in Berlin, Germany, shall prove a success, the feminine subjects of Kaiser Wilhelm must be quite different from our sisters, cousins, and aunts at home.

A number of projects for daily journals for women have been formed in this country, but few of them ever attained success. A financial woman's journal would have about as much chance in this country as a periodical devoted to beauty hints for men. The many women of America who take an interest in financial problems are perfectly able to comprehend the investment news in any newspaper. They do not need to

Pass Christian.

Pass Christian, which is now on tap, was never known till recently, and then it sprang upon the map with energy, yet decently. I know not if it be a town, nor what the games they're playing there; you cannot keep a good Pass down when Presidents are staying there. Pass Christian, by the public sheets, has boosted been most cleverly, but silence broods upon the streets and in the halls of Beverly. One burg goes up, another down, for burgs are like humanity: humiliation holds one down, while one swells up with vanity. Pass Christian throbbed upon the wires for its brief day, however, while silent were the minstrels' lyres, and hushed the bells of Beverly. Pass Christian by excitement tossed, saw crowded every hostelry, until her citizens were lost in all the crush and jostly; one day unknown, the next day great, was ever like emergency? Serene and proud she faced her fate, quite equal to the urgency? to entertain her horde of guests she met them all endeavoring, while sorrow filled the many breasts and chilled the hearts at Beverly.

Wisdom from Washington

Washington, Jan. 29.—[Special].—With a firm hand on every part of the government, with such control of his party as never before known in the history of the country, Woodrow Wilson is steering the course of the administration in a manner which seems satisfactory to the citizens, judging from the returns. If the president were not popular in the country or if congressmen were not admonished time after time by their constituents to "stand by the president" they would not with such unanimity be obeying his wishes.

Other presidents have exerted influence in congress; other presidents have enjoined, promised, persuaded and sometimes browbeaten congress into doing what they wanted done; other presidents have compromised with congress, but President Wilson has been able to have his own way without any extraordinary efforts. The mere fact that he wants this done and does not want the other thing done seems to be sufficient.

"With Whip in Hand."

Senator Clapp of Minnesota, commenting upon the popularity of the president, remarked: "The worst of it is that the president's popularity is due to the fact that he is pictured all over the country with whip in hand, driving congress to do his bidding and carry out his will. It has been supposed that congress was the bulwark of our liberties, but the people seem to like better a one man power."

"Hide Goes With the Tail."

"The hide goes with the tail," remarked a member of the house, reversing the old saying, when the various proposed "riders" on the postoffice appropriation bill were lost on points of order following the determination of President Wilson not to have the assistant postmaster rider included. Several sections had been added to the bill which the postoffice department wanted, but everything went by the board, along with the rider affecting the civil service. About the most mourned provision was that increasing the salaries of rural carriers. All these amendments went out because the committee on rules did not bring in a special rule making them in order.

"Shack's" Good Roads Too.

Along with other propositions that went out was Shackelford's proposition for expending $25,000,000 for road building. No doubt a majority of the house will support this in another bill. "Nothing but a presidential veto stands between the government and that expenditure," remarked Congressman Fitzgerald, who is fighting all increased appropriations.

Matter of Environment.

Senator Chamberlain of Oregon is a native of Mississippi, yet when he and Senator Williams of Mississippi clashed over the Alaska railroad bill it was shown that environment has more to do with shaping a man's views than his nativity and early training. Chamberlain voiced the sentiment of the great west rather than the conservative ideas of the south. Chamberlain favored large government expenditures for development of a new country; Williams believed that the government should not embark upon any such work. Chamberlain saw no difference between a government built and government operated railroad in Alaska and a government improved Mississippi river.

Another Clark.

"You ought to have heard Frank Clark wake 'em up," remarked a man from Baltimore. "There was a banquet to the Confederate veterans, and a lot of proxy speakers had put the crowd to sleep. Then Frank Clark came along, and in a minute he had them all up and going. I tell you, he threw words into 'em!"

"Probably they thought it was Champ," suggested another man. "Naw, they didn't. It was Frank Clark of Florida. Champ ain't in

Pancho Villa With Three of His Generals.

From Left to Right—Generals Fiero, Villa, Ortego, and Medina.

Pancho Villa and the men who remained with him now seem to be the strongest force in Mexico outside of President Huerta himself. The ex-bandit, who some weeks ago was merely one of the generals of the forces led by Provisional President Carranza, has by his numerous victories at Juarez, Chihuahua, and Ojinaga, risen to overshadow his chief. For weeks Mexicans fighting Huerta have been anxious for the time when Villa and Carranza would get together for a concerted attack on Huerta, but so far there has been no move of this kind. There are now grave doubts if Villa will recognize the authority of Carranza. Men familiar with the Mexican situation insist that Villa will now go it alone. If he does not feel strong enough to march on Mexico City, they believe he will hold what he has in Chihuahua and adjacent territory, and thus virtually set up a government of his own.

only Clark in congress. You'll have to hand a few to that Florida man."

How It Grows.

"In 1900," said Congressman Lloyd of Missouri to the house, "we expended for rural free delivery $425,000. This bill carries $4,500,000 for the same service. In 1909 we expended $37,000,000 for transportation on railways. This year we appropriated $60,500,000." It was his idea to show how much more rapidly the cost of the rural service had increased as compared with the railroad service.

Of Course They Are Sore.

While the Democrats accepted their defeat by the president in the matter of turning the assistant postmasters over to them as political patronage, they felt sore about it. There were something like 3,000 places which might have gone to their constituents, which would have appeased the appetites of office seekers to some extent.

Human Procession

Maria Ferdinando Francesco, Duke of the Abruzzi, commander of the Italian navy, and once spoken of—to the extent of several columns a day for several years—as the suitor of Miss Katherine Elkins, will celebrate his forty-first birthday today. The recent marriage of Miss Elkins, with whom the Duke was supposed to be passionately in love, has not left him as disconsolate as might have been expected, for during the present social season the Duke has been among the gayest of the gay. He has won the title of "the best tango dancer in Italy," and has instructed hundreds of fair pupils in the tango art. The duke's devotion to that form of terpsichorean expression has led to the accusation that he has corrupted Italian society. Members of staid old Italian families have appealed to the King and Queen; it is alleged, asking them to put a stop to their kinsman's exploitation of the Argentine dance.

The recent appointment of the Duke of the Abruzzi as commander in chief of Italy's navy met with great favor. His many brave exploits as a naval officer and explorer have endeared him to his countrymen who point to the fact that the Duke was in command of the torpedo squadron that struck the first blow in the Italian-Turkish war, when the Turkish gunboats were torpedoed in Durazzo harbor. This attack almost led to international complications between Italy and Austria, and the government of the latter country immediately issued a warning against carrying the war into European Turkish territory. The Duke was recalled and for a time shut up at Taranto, a victim of diplomacy, until popular indignation forced his restoration to a better command.

It is declared that the Duke released Miss Elkins from her engagement only a few months before the heiress became Mrs. H. The Duke expected to be chosen king of Albania, in which event he would have been free to wed the American girl. The rivalry between Italy and Austria, it is alleged, forced a secret agreement that neither an Austrian nor Italian prince be placed on the Albanian throne. Other "authorities" assert that no engagement ever existed between the Duke and Miss Elkins, and that their relations were of those of mutual sympathy and admiration.

WHAT IS IT?

What battle?
Answer to Wednesday's puzzle—Flee.

Alaska and many other mountains, and has written several books descriptive of his expeditions.

Dr. August Wilhelm Hohenzollern, otherwise Prince August, fourth son of the German emperor, will celebrate his twenty-seventh birthday today. He is a doctor of political science, having received that degree from the University of Bonn. The army and navy have no appeal for the most scholarly of the Kaiser's offspring, and he will adopt a civil career. The prince married Princess Alexandra Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein-Sonderburg-Glücksburg.

Instead of taking time by the forelock some people are satisfied to hang onto his coat tails.

MT. ZION.

Miss Ollie Nicholls has returned home after a pleasant visit with friends and relatives at Bladensburg.

Miss Anna Johnson spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Stella Mills.

There will be literary at Mt. Zion Saturday evening, Jan. 31. Everyone invited to come.

Virgil Wolfe has sold his fine team of black colts to McKee and Porterfield.

A STITCH IN TIME

Newark People Should not Neglect Their Kidneys.

No kidney ailment is unimportant. Don't overlook the slightest backache or urinary irregularity. Nature may be warning you of approaching dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Kidney disease is seldom fatal if treated in time, but neglect may pave the way. Don't neglect a lame or aching back another day. Don't ignore dizzy spells, irregular or discolored urine, headaches, weariness or depression. If you feel you need kidney help begin using the reliable, time-tried remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. For 50 years, Doan's have been found effective. Endorsed by Newark people.

Mrs. Charles Dudgeon, 433 West Church St., Newark, O., says: "One of the family suffered a good deal from kidney weakness and backache. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from A. F. Crayton & Co.'s Drug Store, brought great relief."

Price 50¢, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Dudgeon had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

—AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

Money Saved by Making Your Cough Syrup at Home

Takes But a Few Moments, and Stops a Harsh Cough in a Hurry.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 1/2 pint of warm water and stir about 15 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. It keeps perfectly.

You will find it one of the best cough syrups you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually conquers an ordinary cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and the taste is pleasant.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quinine and other healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This plan for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

THE HOME BUILDING ASSOCIATION COMPANY OF NEWARK, OHIO

A GOOD FEATURE

While we issue Certificates of Deposit drawing 4 per cent, interest on which is paid by check each six months, we feel that this form of investment is best only for those who know that they will need the income from their savings as fast as it is earned.

For most people it is preferable to open a regular savings account, where the interest is figured each six months, but not paid in cash unless requested.

The interest on these accounts can always be drawn in cash if you desire, but if not withdrawn it is credited to you on your account and AT ONCE BEGINS TO EARN COMPOUND INTEREST.

The tendency with a savings account is to let the interest accumulate, while with any other investment where interest is paid in cash, the tendency is to spend it.

That is why we recommend the pass book account as best for the average saver.

Society

The meeting of the Progressive club on the calendar for Wednesday, the twenty-eighth, was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Wesson in Hudson avenue. The program opened with roll call, the quotations being from Tennyson's "Holy Grail" and they were arranged by Mrs. Woodbridge. Mrs. Annis Lawhead was on the calendar for a paper on Wagner's "Parsifal," but Mrs. Lawhead has been critically ill and replacing her was a paper by Mrs. Merrill Montgomery on Saint Saeus, and another by Mrs. Grove Montgomery on Massenet's "Thais."

The papers were illustrated by selections from the composers by Mrs. Grove Montgomery and Mrs. Don Tullis.

Mr. and Mrs. George Richards of North street, Granville, entertained with a dinner honoring Mr. J. Edgar Rine and his bride of Hanover. Covers were laid for twenty and the table was prettily arranged in pink and green.

A delicious five course menu was served the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Rine, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Rine and daughter Edith of Hanover, Mr. and Mrs. Gay Montgomery and son Hart of Dresden, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fluhart of Newark, and Mayor T. M. Fluhart and family of Linden Heights.

Miss Hazel Donaldson entertained the members of her Sunday school class on Tuesday afternoon at her home in Stevens street. After a time spent by sewing, refreshments were served.

Those present were: Misses Madeleine and Helen Hall, Mabel Fisher, Oleta Crawford, Alice Johnson, Marie Hey, Mary Mack, Jessie and Opal Cline, Mary Holmes, Dorothy Hughes, Florence Kindal, Helen Irwin, Leota Morman, Goldie Humphrey, Ruth Wellington and Mrs. Lawrence Flohr. Mrs. Thomas Gaines assisted in entertaining.

The members of the Harmonious club were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Cooper on Tuesday afternoon. After the business session the time was taken up with fancy needlework. The hostess served an elaborate luncheon to the members and guest, Mrs. J. M. Black. Pink and white carnations and baskets of fruit were the table decorations.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Murray Connelly, February 10.

Rev. Father Charles Watterson entertained the members of the Junior choir of the Blessed Sacrament church and the altar boys with a banquet on Wednesday evening. The banquet is an annual event, given by the pastor to his young co-workers and it was served on Wednesday evening in the dining room of the church.

The menu was prepared by the ladies of the church and sixty-three were seated at the long banquet table which was arranged with clusters of daffodils and fern leaves.

The employees of the John J. Carroll store, perpetrated a surprise party on Mrs. Mori Lake (Irene George) on Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. George in North avenue. The surprise was most complete, and the evening was informally spent with music and games. Mrs. Lake was presented with a small chest of silver, as a token from the employees of the store. A dainty luncheon was served to about forty guests.

Obituary

James W. Clark.
James W. Clark, 65 years old, of Chicago, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. F. Hanger, in Columbus. He went to Columbus Tuesday to visit his daughter. Heart disease was the cause of death. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at the Methodist Church in Kirtlandville. Burial will be in the Kirtlandville cemetery.

Sylvanus Mevey.
Sylvanus Mevey, aged 75 years, died at 8 o'clock Thursday morning at his home 422 Park avenue. His death was due to paralysis and heart trouble.

He was born in Zanesville, Muskingum county, March 27, 1839. He was married to Luitia Urban, October 30, 1862. To this union eight children were born, his wife and four children having preceded him. He enlisted in Co. B 159th regiment, May 2, 1864, and served 100 days. He was given an honorable discharge at Zanesville, August 24, 1864. Mr. Mevey was married to Mrs. Absolum Harris, April 27, 1901, who survives him with his children, Mrs. Arthur Koonz of St. Louisville, Ohio, Mrs. Charles D. Huffman, Mrs. William Waters, of Battle Creek, Mich., and Fred of the home. The funeral will take place at the home at 1:30 Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Carrie B. Miller.
Mrs. Carrie B. Miller, residing at 43 Western avenue, died at 2 o'clock Thursday morning at the home, after a brief illness of cardiac asthma.

Mrs. Miller has resided in Newark nearly the whole of her life, her maiden name being Carrie B. Thrapp. She was a woman greatly beloved by all who knew her, always a devoted mother and faithful Christian. For a number of years she has been a consistent member of the Seventh Day Adventist church, in which work she will be greatly missed.

She is survived by two sons, Harry F. Miller and Frank Miller of the home, besides three sisters, Mrs. Harvey L. Pence, of Norwalk, Conn., Mrs. Robert Hogg of Lakeside, Ottawa county, Ohio, and a sister, Miss Louise Thrapp of the home. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

Miss Sarah A. James.
Word has been received from Miami, Fla., announcing the death of Miss Sarah A. James. Miss James is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James S. James, of the Sharon Hotel, and has been in the South for the past six weeks in an endeavor to restore her health. She was 47 years old.

Surviving her are two sisters, Mrs. Mary Egan of Granville and Mrs. Elizabeth Wright of Utica, and one brother, Virgil James of Cleveland.

The body will be brought to Newark for burial, but no arrangements have been completed for the funeral services.

Mr. Grandie's Funeral.
Acme lodge F. & A. M. will have charge of the funeral which will be held at 2 o'clock Friday of Frank A. Grandie, whose death occurred Wednesday morning. The services will be held in his late home, 577 North Fourth street, Rev. Calvin Hasselt officiating. Interment at Cedar Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Corbell's Funeral.
The funeral of Mrs. Hannah Corbell was held Thursday at 12:30 at the home of the daughter, Mrs. Menhennick, 259 West Locust street. The body was shipped at 1:40 o'clock via the B. & O. to Columbus and by the Pennsylvania lines to Howard City, Mich., for interment.

Mr. Bingmann's Funeral.
The funeral of Charles F. Bingmann was held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in his late home, First and Walnut streets, Rev. Mr. Hollar officiating. The Redmen had charge of the services. Interment at Cedar Hill cemetery.

Card of Thanks.
Our friends in Granville and Newark will please accept our heartfelt thanks for sympathy extended in our sad bereavement. To the Bricklayers Union and other donors of floral remembrances to the departed, we desire to show our sincere appreciation. The Kelvey Children.
1-29-14

Card of Thanks.
We desire to thank our friends and neighbors for their assistance and sympathy at the time of the death of our husband and father. We also express our appreciation to Rev. Father O'Boylan and the choir also for the many floral offerings. Mrs. Jacob F. Swartz and children.

Easy Way to Remove Objectionable Hairs

(Beauty Culture.)
Progressive beauty specialists are rapidly adopting the new, painless method for removing superfluous hairs and the result is that the costly and painful electric needle treatment is fast being discarded. The treatment is inexpensive and very simple—just make a paste with a little of the powdered delectable and water and apply to hairy surface. After 2 or 3 minutes rub off and with it comes every trace of hair. Washing leaves the skin firm and spotless. Be sure, however, that you get the real delectable. Advertisement.

A Kingdom for a Cotton Frock.

When fond papa is told that the new frock or the new suit for the rainy spring days is to be merely a trifle of a cotton affair, he need not flatter himself that daughter is becoming economical. She is really quite abreast of the mode, for King Cotton is coming to his own again this season in suitings that outdo silk and wool in beauty and effectiveness, and alas! in price. Here in the delicate shade of the stately foxglove is a cotton cote de cheval, that even an expert, to say nothing of fond papa, could hardly distinguish from stuffs that were wont to be more costly than cotton.

Moreover, there is another item to be debited to the expense account, and that is yardage. Even though coats are now short and skirts are narrow, the broadness and the looseness of the former and the puffed-upness and puffed-out-ness of the latter use up just as much high-priced material as the precise old long coat and wide skirt. Alas, poor father!

OFFERS DIAMONDS FOR SALE; COPS WILL INVESTIGATE

J. F. Perkins, colored, was arrested Wednesday night by Police Captain Swank and Patrolmen Corder and Harter when he was found offering unmounted diamonds for sale. He was lodged at the city prison and will be held for investigation. Later Patrolman Harter brought in Perkins' woman companion, also colored but after an interview with the chief the woman was ordered out of town. Officers believe that the diamonds Perkins was trying to sell may have been stolen.

CAR WITH TRAILER JUMPS TRACK AND STRIKES ANOTHER

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, Jan. 28.—Two persons were injured and 200 passengers were in danger of death or injury early today when a crowded Broadway car with trailer jumped the track at Harvard avenue and crashed into a packed East 16th street car.

When the crash came passengers in the trailer tried to force the doors, but they could not be opened. Women passengers screamed and several fainted. In all three cars the passengers were showered with broken glass and all were panic stricken.

Frank Williams, one of the motorists, was badly cut by the glass, and several others were slightly scratched. A woman who was crossing the street was badly bruised when the jumping car struck her.

KILLS SELF IN PRESENCE OF AGED MOTHER

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, Jan. 28.—After shooting at Wilson Willis, a neighbor, who had called to inquire about his illness, Faragant Worts, a farmer, today fired a bullet into his own brain at his home at Mayfield Center, east of Cleveland. He died instantly.

Willis escaped death by grasping Worts when he pulled the revolver. The bullet lodged in the ceiling of Worts' bedroom.

CARNATION DAY BEING OBSERVED AT CANTON, O.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Canton, Jan. 28.—Canton's tribute to the memory of McKinley today was a liberal display of carnation bouquets and short talks on his life in the public schools. It will culminate tonight in a banquet by the McKinley club at the Courtland hotel at which plates will be laid for three hundred. Major Charles R. Miller of Cleveland, cousin of McKinley, will be toastmaster. The speakers and topics are as follows:

Senator T. E. Burton, "McKinley, His Enduring Influence in American Life."

Former Representative Nicholas Longworth, "In Unity There is Strength."

Representative F. B. Willis, "McKinley, the Progressive Republican."

Attorney Harry L. Vail, "The New Faces in Politics."

Former Representative Ralph D. Cole, "Eulogy on McKinley."

STRAW HATS MAKE FIRST APPEARANCE OF PRESENT YEAR

While dubious at first, even the most pessimistic of us, cannot fail to notice the things that mark the approach of spring, even if it be only the 29th day of January.

The regulars who decorate the corners and take their daily sun baths have been out in force for several days. School children romp through the streets carrying hats and coats, and on Wednesday the small boy was busy with his kite, getting it up in the stiff breeze. All these things betoken spring and are hereby acknowledged.

But now, we have the signs of summer. The straw hat—the first straw hat—made its appearance upon our streets today, and harken ye masculine prosecutors of feminine frills and frivolities, it was not the "silly young thing" who rushed the season, but the hat in question was a stiff masculine bit of headgear and rested upon the brow of a student of the high school. It remained for Paul Maranville, to gain the envy of the feminine world by his daring. But even then Paul was not alone, for shortly after another straw sailor sallied up West Main street, and entered the high school building, where they were doffed in the effort to attain greater knowledge.

Love occasionally dies a lingering death, but it is more often due to heart disease.

Flattery among friends is a case of either make or break.

LITTLE DISCUSSIONS OF LOVE AND MARRIAGE

BY BARBARA BOYD

Martyrs of Marriage.

"There are lots of martyrs of marriage, aren't there?" observed the Bachelor Girl reflectively.

"There are quite some martyrs to single blessedness," replied the Bachelor pointedly.

"They can't suffer, though, quite so poignantly as the martyrs of marriage," said the Bachelor Girl suavely.

"There aren't quite so many arrows of affliction accompanying the single state,"

"Their point may be sharper," contended the Bachelor.

"I am not out for an argument," explained the Bachelor Girl. "I was just thinking of a man I know who is a martyr to marriage. Of course, I don't suppose the world regards him in that light, nor his wife either, for that matter. I presume his sad fate is looked upon as one of those unfortunate, or mysterious, acts of Providence, or chance, to which mortals must be resigned. But to my way of thinking, he is simply a martyr."

"What happened to him? Is it a case of affinity, ill-health, or extravagance?"

"No; it is simply one of those experiences, so commonplace as not to be recognized as out of the ordinary; and so the cause of his death is not traced back to its real source at all."

"Great Scott! Did he die?"

"Yes, he died. That's the sad part of it. And that's the reason I say he is a martyr of marriage. He was a fine young fellow, six feet tall, broad-shouldered, handsome, never sick a day in his life, twenty-three years old, the only son. His mother was an excellent housekeeper, and he always had food that was nourishing, well-cooked, delicious. He married a girl who didn't know the first thing about housekeeping. She was indolent and wouldn't get up to get his breakfast—though, considering that she couldn't cook, the result would have been the same, perhaps, if she had. But at any rate, he would get his own breakfast; and as he knew nothing about such work he just scratched himself together an indifferent meal. Then he got a scrappy restaurant lunch—and you know what that means, unless you can afford to buy just what you want and at a first-class place. And in the evening the dinner was a miserably cooked, tasteless affair. Of course, his health gradually failed; and the other day, less than a year since he was married, he died of appendicitis."

"Lots of people who aren't married die of appendicitis."

"That's true. But he never had appendicitis while he ate the meals his mother cooked. I fully think his death was due to the food he had had the past year. It was too much of a comment to what he had eaten all his life. His system wasn't prepared for such a change."

"Slow poisoning then is beneficial."

"One can get accustomed to some poison, if you take it gradually. But what I was thinking about was that this man was really a martyr to marriage."

"If he knew that the two of them must keep house, and that his wife must be the housekeeper, he shouldn't have married a girl who knew nothing about housekeeping."

"But does a man ever stop to think about that? And if he does, isn't he considered cold and practical and that he is marrying simply to get a cook?"

"Well then, those who desire to be benevolent had better cultivate tough constitutions. I am perfectly willing, though, to become a martyr. One year of bliss is better than none."

"If a girl knows she is expected to keep house, I do not think she ought to marry unless she understands the work ahead of her. It isn't fair to the man."

"Taking your remarks as a sample," said the Bachelor, looking toward the chafing dish, "I should judge you knew how to cook."

"A chafing dish isn't a cook stove," sagely replied the Bachelor Girl.

Barbara Boyd.

GIRL'S SIGHT IS SAVED BY QUICK ACTION

The necessity for prompt action to save children from blindness is shown in this case, which was discovered accidentally in southeastern Ohio. The story is well worth reading, and shows in a way the wonderful work that is being done by the Ohio Commission for the Blind to save the eyesight of children.

A school teacher of Toledo was visiting in the section of the state where this little tot lived. Her attention was called to the girl, Sadie W., and she called to see the child.

When she went to the home, far back in the hills, she found in the humble cottage the little girl burying her face in a pillow. Sadie could not stand the sunlight. The bright light caused her to suffer intense pain, and the big tears rolled down her rosy cheeks when she would start to play with the other children. She would run to a pillow, bury her little head in it and cry with pain. This school teacher, who had heard of the Ohio Commission for the Blind, reported the case at once to the headquarters in Columbus.

One of the special field nurses was sent to the home, and with the consent of the parents was permitted to bring Sadie to Columbus, where she was given the best attention that could be secured. The pictures accompanying this tell the story better than words. One shows Sadie crying with pain, her head buried in a toy cat, the other shows her after she had been under treatment a short time. It took five months of careful and constant attention, but baby Sadie is back home again now with normal vision in one eye. It was the opinion of the specialist in consultation that both eyes might have been saved could the right treatment have been given in time. Sadie was a favorite in the Columbus hospital, and now leads her little playmates in the games of childhood which she could not enjoy before the great state of Ohio came to her rescue. Sadie

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

Look years younger! Use the old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance with a few days. Agents, Hall's drug store.

WONDERFUL COUGH REMEDY. Dr. King's New Discovery is known everywhere as the remedy which will surely stop a cough or cold. D. P. Lawson of Eldon, Tenn., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the most wonderful cough, cold and throat and lung medicine I ever sold in my store. It can't be beat. I sell without any trouble at all. It needs no guarantee." This is true, because Dr. King's New Discovery will relieve the most obstinate of coughs and colds. Lung troubles quickly helped by its use. You should keep a bottle in the house at all times for all the members of the family. 50c and $1.00. Recommended by Frank D. Hall.

Tenement Is Great Breeding Place of White Plague

By Rev. FREDERICK L. FLAGLEY, Pastor of Plymouth Congregational Church, Cincinnati

WE who live on the hilltops may think that it is none of our business that thirty-two thousand families live in tenements in the city and that twenty thousand families live in the tenements in the bottoms, but it is. Leaving for the present our moral and religious responsibility, let us consider the influence of the tenement in our city.

IT IS OUR HEALTH THAT IS IMPERILED AS WE RIDE ON THE CROWDED CARS, GO INTO OUR STORES OR WALK ALONG OUR STREETS, BECAUSE THE TENEMENT IS THE GREAT BREEDING PLACE OF THE WHITE PLAQUE AND OTHER DISEASES. IT IS OUR LIFE AND OUR HOME THAT ARE ENDANGERED BY THE CRIMINAL OF THE SLUMS.

It is our city administration that is embarrassed by the RICH LANDLORDS who desire NO TENEMENT REGULATION or inspection, but who only demand FAVORABLE REPORTS OF THEIR RENT COLLECTOR or speedy action of the official ejector.

OUR CITY NEEDS INTELLIGENT VOTERS; OUR FACTORIES NEED CAPABLE WORKMEN, STRONG OF ARM AND CLEAR OF BRAIN; THE CHILDREN OF THE CITY NEED EFFICIENT MOTHERS OF CHARACTER, AND IT IS AS IMPOSSIBLE TO GROW STRONG MEN AND PURE WOMEN IN OUR WORST TENEMENTS AS IT IS TO GROW CORN OR WHEAT IN A CELLAR.

WHY HE DOES IT

Druggist W. A. Erman Gives Reasons for Selling at Half Price

It isn't often that we have faith enough in the medicines put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure, said druggist W. A. Erman to one of his many customers, but we are glad to sell Dr. Howard's remedy for constipation and dyspepsia on that plan.

The Dr. Howard Company in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorized him to sell the regular fifty cent bottle of their remedy for half-price, 25 cents and although we have sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory.

We are still selling the specific at half-price, although we cannot tell how long we shall be able to do so. Any person who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played out condition, ought to take advantage of this opportunity. If the remedy does not cure them, they can come right back to my store, and we will cheerfully refund their money.

CHILD'S PAINS.

A foul, disagreeable breath, dark circles around the eyes, at times feverish, with great thirst; cheeks flushed and then pale, abdomen swollen with sharp cramping pains are all indications of worms. Don't let your child suffer—Kickapoo Worm Killer will give sure relief. It kills the worms—while its laxative effect add greatly to the health of your child by removing the dangerous and disagreeable effect of worms and parasites from the system. Kickapoo Worm Killer as a health producer should be in every household. Price 25c. All druggists or by mail.

Hostile Passions Obliterated by Temporizing

By ALFRED H. FRIED, Distinguished German Pacifist

THE manner in which the United States government delayed rushing into precipitate action in the California-Japanese controversy, the quarrel with Great Britain over the Panama canal tolls and the strife with Huerta is CHARACTERISTIC OF THE PEACE POLICY which America deliberately pursues.

It has been properly recognized there that it is not the main thing to settle every conflict on the strict basis of rights, but to give conflicts such a character that they can be settled by the sensible means of either arbitration or compromise. The best means to attain that end is to EXCLUDE THE PASSIONS WHICH NATURALLY ARISE FROM INTERNATIONAL DIFFERENCES—passions which are the chief menace to an amicable settlement.

Hostile passions are most effectively obliterated by a policy of temporizing. The European powers traditionally cherish the fear that prestige is shattered unless the saber is rattled at every possible opportunity and an "energetic tone" is employed.

THE IDEA IS PROPAGATED THAT IT IS BENEATH THE DIGNITY OF A GREAT POWER TO YIELD. WITHOUT A HISTORY AMERICA HAS MORE MODERN AND SENSIBLE CONCEPTIONS. THEY ARE PLAINLY EXPRESSED IN THE NEW PEACE TREATIES OF SECRETARY BRYAN.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS TO MEET IN COLUMBUS FEB. 5

All the counties of Central and Southern Ohio are expected to send their Sunday school workers to Columbus on Thursday, February 5th to participate in the rally and the big meeting held in conjunction with the World's Sunday School Tour Party, which is conducting a campaign for the evangelization of Turkey and the other Moslem countries.

The program will open at 9:30 in the morning. Various subjects of interest to county, township and state will be taken up leading to the consideration of the World's Sunday School Association work in Moslem lands. This will be handled by Rev. S. M. Zwerner and Rev. S. R. van Trowbridge, both of whom have had many years of service in the orient.

Marion Lawrence will also address the gathering.

Another topic which will be taken up will be the relation of church and Sunday-school to the newspaper. This with a view to bringing about a closer understanding between the press of Ohio and the church. T. T. Frankenburg, of the Ohio State Journal will discuss this topic.

Following the morning session there will be a luncheon at which all the delegates and visitors are expected to get acquainted. The evening meeting, which will be open to the general public, will be held in the largest available church.

"Carnation Day"
Observed Today By Americans Everywhere

All over the United States, and in all other parts of the world where the sons of Uncle Sam have wandered, carnations will be worn today as a mark of respect for the memory of William McKinley. It is the anniversary of the birthday of the martyr President, whose favorite flower was the carnation. Soon after his tragic death, his admirers banded together and formed the Carnation League, with the object of making it an annual custom to wear a carnation on January 29th. The observance is becoming more universal each year, and the demand for carnations today will doubtless be greater than ever before. During his presidency Mr. McKinley sent a number of fresh carnations to him every day from the White House conservatory, and he always wore one in his button-hole. Callers frequently asked for the flowers as souvenirs, and with his customary graciousness he always granted the request. Many of these blossoms are now tenderly preserved by their recipients. The late President's love for this flower led those planning the permanent observance of his birthday to believe that no better way could be devised than by forming a Carnation League.

The Carnation League was inspired by the success of the Primrose League, which was founded in England in 1883 in memory of the Earl of Beaconsfield, and so called because on the anniversary of his death every member wears a bunch of primroses.

McKinley Day is most generally observed in Canton, O., long the home of the martyr President, where he sleeps beneath a handsome monument reared to his memory, and in Niles, O., his birthplace. The house in which he was born was removed from its original site and permitted to fall into decay, until a public-spirited woman set about the task of its restoration and preservation.

Members of the Thomas Paine Memorial Association will today celebrate the birthday of the literary patriot by making their annual pilgrimage to New Rochelle, N. Y., where Paine spent the last years of his life and where a monument has been erected to his memory. Not long ago the name of the Thomas Paine house was changed to "De Veaux House" by the Huguenot Association, owners of the property, and this has led to indignant protests from the American Revolution, the Paine Memorial Association, and other bodies. In the revolution De Veaux supported England, and his property was confiscated and given to Paine in recognition of his services to the republican cause. Paine was the first to give the name of United States of America to the struggling colonies, and by many historians he is believed to have been the author of the Declaration of Independence.

Brienne-le-Chateau, the little French town where Napoleon received his military education, will celebrate today the centenary of the Emperor's last visit to the village. It was on January 29, 1814, that Napoleon began his campaign against the allies who were storming at all the borders of France. At Brienne, where he had been taught the grim science of war, he attempted to cut the Silesian army in two by suddenly interposing his forces between Schwartzberg and Blucher, so as to prevent their junction. The chateau of Brienne was the headquarters of Blucher, who escaped by leading his horse down the stairs. Almost at the same spot and on the same day Napoleon had a hair-breadth escape from the attack of a Cossack by the prompt assistance of Gorgaud.

PURITY

Misses Jessie and Fannie Wright were called to Frazzsburg Sunday by the death of their uncle and aunt, who were asphyxiated by gas in their home there. Both young ladies are teachers here, one at Concord and the other at Polkstalk. There was no school at either building Monday but the teachers returned Monday night and resumed their work Tuesday.

There is an attendance contest on in the Eden Sunday school now. The side showing the greatest gain at the end of the present quarter shall be entertained at a supper given by the losing side. The attendance Sunday numbered 192.

Rev. W. J. Foster delivered two very good sermons at Eden Sunday. He has accepted call to preach here every second Sunday until April 1st.

A pigeon shooting contest is announced for next Saturday at this place, the losing side to entertain the other side at a supper to be given in the hall here.

Mrs. Lucinda Pound is spending a few weeks with her son, William Pound, and family. She has received the announcement of the arrival of an eleven pound boy at the home of her son, Orlando Pound, in Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott were in Columbus Thursday as guests of the latter's brother, Dr. Dillon Stewart and wife, Mrs. Stewart, who is an actress, was playing at Kettle last week.

Miss Linnie Herrold of Washington, Pa., and Mr. James Harris of Newark were guests of the latter's nephew, Stephen Harris, and wife, from Thursday until Saturday.

Mr. Clint Dustin of Centerburg was a guest of Mr. Ben Lewis and family last week.

Misses Ada Lovell, Fannie and Jessie Wright and Mrs. W. J. Foster, Paul Lewis, Ben Hawke and Carl Lewis were guests of the home of Perry Van Winkle, in Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harris and two sons spent Sunday at the former's aunt, Mrs. Mary Lewis, and family.

Miss Hazel Dodge of St. Louisville visited over Sunday with the Misses Wilkin.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Weaver of St. Louisville were guests of the latter's parents and sister Sunday night and Sunday.

Miss Emily Berg of St. Louisville spent Sunday with Miss Edith Mithers.

Messrs. Dan Hanover and Carl Lewis were Newark visitors Monday night.

Mrs. William J. and daughter Susan were guests of Mrs. Ben Lewis Friday.

HAIR STOPS FALLING, DANDRUFF DISAPPEARS---25 CENT DANDERINE

Save your hair! Make it soft, glossy, fluffy, beautiful—Grows hair and we prove it.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be to find a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair growth.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

STATE HEALTH EXHIBIT

The germs are usually in the spit of a consumptive and since 90 per cent of all tuberculosis is of the lungs, we are directing the means of prevention against this form of the disease.

When expectorated from the body, the germ lives and multiplies best in dark, damp, dirty places. Sunlight kills it in a few hours. Disinfection kills it in a very short time, and burning destroys it immediately.

"Tuberculosis is not hereditary. The germs are spread in any community in the same manner that a farmer sows his seed in field. Some of these fall on stony ground and do not grow, so, when a person is strong and well and keeps up his resistance, the germ does not grow. When a person is weakened by overwork, lack of sleep, worry, bad food or dissipation, he becomes fertile soil. Live a regular life and thus keep up your resistance!"

"The symptoms are loss of weight and appetite, fever in the afternoons, a cough lasting several weeks, and a tired feeling."

"Bad housing, poor factory and working conditions, dirty side-walks, streets, alleys and yards all make a favorable place for the germ to grow."

BUCKEYE BAND TONIGHT.

The Buckeye band has donated its service and will play several numbers in the Ohio State Public Health exhibit tonight, in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium.

law gives the power of appointment to the medical superintendents. "Recently a division of tuberculosis under the state board of health was authorized by the General Assembly and is engaged in the prevention of the disease by means of educational work."

"Every county seat in the state, as well as every city of 5,000 or more population, should have an active voluntary society working for the prevention of tuberculosis, with a visiting nurse in its employ; a free clinic where persons who suspect they have tuberculosis may be examined; a hospital to which moderately advanced and advanced cases may be sent; and should send all incipient pulmonary cases to the state sanatorium at Mt. Vernon."

"With this plan adopted and actively in operation in every county in the state, the decline in the tuberculosis death rate can be predicted within a very few years."

The special free illustrated lecture

Coupon THE ADVOCATE BETTER-HEALTH CONTEST. Coupon.

This coupon entitles the bearer to one State Exchange coupon, which will be given out at the close of each evening's lecture at the State Public Health exhibit, Y. M. C. A. auditorium. When three of the State Exchange coupons have been received by one person, the holder is entitled to entrance in the Advocate's Better Health contest. State Exchange coupons must be presented with "better sanitation" suggestions, and submitted to the Contest Editor, Advocate office, Feb. 5, 6 or 7.

These should be corrected or cleaned up.

"The treatment of tuberculosis consists in sunlight, fresh air, good food, rest and freedom from worry. Medicine may help but will not cure it. Patent medicines will not cure. They waste valuable time and money for the consumptive."

"The campaign for the prevention of tuberculosis in Ohio has been waged by voluntary societies. There are twenty-eight in as many cities of the state. Their financial support comes from the sale of Red Cross seals sold at Christmas time. The money is spent for educational work, lectures, pamphlets, exhibits, etc. Visiting nurses are employed to find persons suffering with the disease to teach the consumptive how to dispose of his sputum so as not to infect others, and to teach the well members of a household how to avoid getting the germ into their bodies. Dispensaries, day-camps, open-air schools and even hospitals have been established in order to give the consumptives a chance to secure proper treatment."

"The state of Ohio has definitely assumed responsibility for the treatment and prevention of this disease. It established the Ohio State Sanatorium for the treatment of persons suffering from incipient pulmonary tuberculosis in 1909. It is located in Knox county, three miles from the city of Mt. Vernon. This institution is not a hospital for advanced cases but a sanatorium or training school for incipient and favorable cases. Under the law the sanatorium cannot accept advanced cases of tuberculosis. The capacity of the sanatorium is 140 beds, and the law fixes a charge of $5 per week, payable in advance, except that 10 per cent of the capacity may be used for patients paying something less than the regular fee. Since the sanatorium was first opened it has treated 523 patients."

"For advanced cases of consumption the state has provided by law for the erection of district hospitals. Under this plan two or more counties join together to bear the expense of erecting and maintaining the hospital. Seven hospitals are in operation in the state at the present time and in addition two municipal hospitals are taking care of patients, one in Cleveland and one in Cincinnati. The state has also provided by law for the appointment of visiting nurses by Boards of County Commissioners in counties without such hospitals. These nurses are paid out of the county poor fund. In counties where hospitals are supported, the

to be given Thursday night in connection with the state free public health exhibit in the Y. M. C. A. hall, will be by Charles F. F. Campbell, executive officer of the Ohio Commission for the Blind. Mr. Campbell will illustrate his talk with moving picture films which should be interesting. He will also show lantern slides which he has gathered from all parts of the world.

Mr. Campbell, whose offices are in Columbus, is the son of Sir Francis Campbell, the American blind man who was knighted by Edward VII. for the wonderful work he has done in behalf of the blind. The lecturer was born in his father's school and except for the time he was at college, has lived and worked for the blind all his life.

Mr. Campbell's motion pictures, which show the blind riding on multi-cycles made to carry twelve, rowing, swimming, skating, running races, and taking part in many other outdoor sports, are most interesting. Some of his slides are made in Switzerland and show his father climbing in the Alps.

Mr. Campbell has been called upon to talk about work for the blind in many parts of the United States and has helped to inaugurate work for the adult blind in several states. The lecture is not a dull recital of medical or unpleasant things, but is full of human interest. The verdict of those who have heard the talk has always been that they "would not have missed it for anything."

Everyone is invited. No admission is charged and no collection is taken.

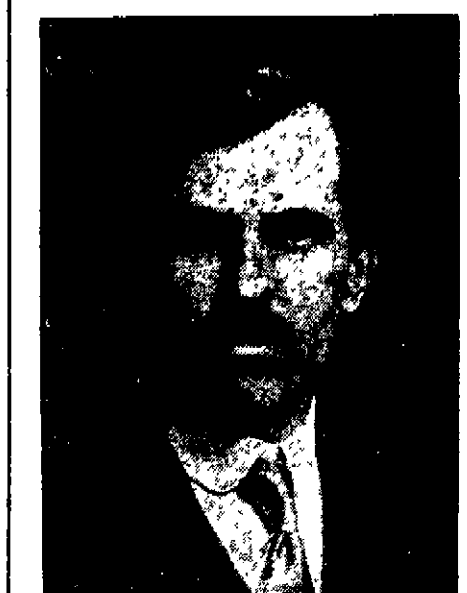

Mr. Campbell arrived in Newark shortly after noon, Thursday, accompanied by Mr. Arthur W. Kellogg, a talented blind musician, whose skill as a vocalist and instrumentalist has never failed to arouse the greatest enthusiasm over the great probabilities of the blind. Mr. Kellogg is a very capable composer and uses several of his own compositions in his programs.

Mr. Campbell addressed students in the High school auditorium in the afternoon, and Mr. Kellogg gave some pleasing selections. The talk to students was along general lines of hygiene and sanitation. Mr. Kellogg also will appear on the night program in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium.

Dr. Paterson, in his talk Wednesday night, referred in terms highly complimentary of The Advocate's Better-Health contest scheme, to which he, as secretary of the Ohio

Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, donated $25 in additional prizes. Several state exchange coupons were issued after the lecture Thursday night, on presentation of Advocate coupons. The growing interest in the easy plan for improving sanitary conditions locally and at the same time winning cash prizes, has become manifest in the frequent favorable comment that is to be heard from visitors to the state health exhibit.

The plan is generally recognized as a real opportunity for the three thinkers who evolve the best ten suggestions.

CHAS. F. F. CAMPBELL, Secretary of the Blind Commission.

gestions. Aside from the fact that these suggestions must be practical suggestions, the only conditions attached to the offer of The Advocate and the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis are these:

No member of the city health department may compete. No member of the medical profession may compete. All contestants must be residents of Newark or Licking county. In order to enter, each contestant must present to The Advocate office, with the ten suggestions, three state exchange coupons, each of which may be obtained from the state health exhibit in exchange for one of the coupons clipped from The Advocate. Copies of suggestions should be presented to this office in a sealed envelope, bearing the name and address of the contestant and the label, "Better-Health Suggestions."

Again, by way of reminder, here are the prizes offered: First best ten suggestions, $25. Second best ten suggestions, $15. Third best ten suggestions, $10.

AGED MAN BEATEN AND ROBBED OF HIS MONEY BY FOOTPADS

Viciously attacked by two unknown men, while enroute to his home in "Texas," Samuel Summers, age 75 years, fell unconscious when struck with a black jack and when he recovered some time later, he had been robbed of $40 in money, most of which he had drawn as his semi-monthly pay as crossing watchman at Fifth street and the Railroad.

Thursday morning about 8:30 o'clock Police Captain Swank placed under arrest Guy ("Goodie") Good and lodged him at the city prison stated "investigation." It is claimed by the police that Good was seen in the vicinity of the holdup about the time it occurred.

It was shortly after 6 o'clock when Mr. Summers started for his home in Summer street, "Texas," having drawn his pay a short time before. Soon after he passed the Valandigham street bridge, two men stepped out of the darkness, struck him on the head with a black-jack and he sank limply to the sidewalk.

When he recovered consciousness his pockets had been rifled of their contents. He made his way to his home and notified police headquarters.

Captain Swank made an investigation and after learning that Good was believed to have been in the vicinity, his arrest was ordered. Other arrests may be made later.

While the victim received a severe blow on the head and suffered considerable pain during the night as a result, it is believed that his injuries are not serious.

"WORLD CITY" TO COST HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS

An international city, to be built at a cost of $100,000,000, has been designed by Hendrik Christian Anderson, an American architect living in Rome, says February Technical World Magazine. Anderson has received a great deal of support from peace societies and the governments of several nations. The state department at Washington has directed American diplomats to aid in the advertisement of the plan. A great meeting took place last December at the Sorbonne, at which President Poincaré of France was scheduled to speak.

The backers of the plan believe that the nations will co-operate when their attention is called to it, and they desire to keep clear of speculation. Possible sites have been proposed on the Jersey coast in the United States, and at many picturesque spots of Europe and, as soon as the plan gains some headway, it will be proclaimed by the whole world. Such a movement requires, of course, a great deal of time to get under way.

Coquetry as a Breakfast Dish.

"Don't you think," asked the Bachelor Girl, "that if you were married you would like to have a bit of coquetry served up with your breakfast?"

"Eh!" exclaimed the Bachelor, somewhat dazed. "This is very sudden. Do you mean to say that at last you have something to marry me? If that is the case, you can serve anything you please for breakfast. I can make a sufficient meal of pure happiness."

"I am afraid you would soon be clamoring for something more substantial. But I wasn't talking about myself or you. You always take things so personally. I am just pursuing a thread of enquiry, as it were, working out a certain line of thought."

"And I suppose that, as usual, I am to be the subject of your vivisection."

"It won't hurt," teased the Bachelor Girl. "I am not so sure about that. But I might as well submit, first at last, to being the victim. The subject, I believe, was the proper matrimonial breakfast."

"Yes. It seems to me that a bit of coquetry is as necessary as oatmeal or chops. I had the opportunity, the other day, to observe a wife serve her husband a most substantial breakfast—a real American breakfast. There was fruit, and oatmeal, and chops, and fried potatoes, and coffee, and hot rolls. It was well cooked, and everything was piping hot; and it certainly was a meal to start him off to his day's work well prepared in brain for it. But she had on a frightfully plain dress, and her hair was as plain as a pipestem, and all she said to him was, 'Is your coffee right?' and 'Aren't the potatoes good?' and things like that. Now it just struck me that if she had put on some kind of ruffled ruff about her throat, and a coquettish little breakfast cap, all fluffy lace and knots of ribbon, and maybe, kissed the top of his bald head when she set down his coffee cup, and done a few more inconsequential, foolish things like that, he would have had a better breakfast. True, he went to business with the feeling he had had a good meal. But it seems to me he would have gone to his work with still greater satisfaction if he had also carried with him the thought of a daintily attractive wife and a few little expressions of love; even though all of them might be, in a way, foolish and frivolous."

"Lots of us are rather weighed down with the practical," mused the Bachelor. "I suppose she was so anxious to give him a good breakfast, because she knew he needed it, that she didn't have time to think of this other side, or else deemed it of no consequence."

"But a spice of coquetry would have added a lot of relish to the breakfast," maintained the Bachelor Girl. "I don't believe in fluffy ruffles and no breakfast any more than I believe in breakfast and no fluffy ruffles. But I do believe in a judicious mixture of the two."

"Suppose you serve them up to me in just the right proportions," suggested the Bachelor. "Then I can judge better."

But the Bachelor Girl was hunting a song she wanted to sing and did not hear him.

Barbara Boyd.

BODY OF EX-SENATOR STARTED TODAY FOR SPRINGFIELD, ILL.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Jan. 29.—After a brief funeral service at his home here the body of Former Senator Shelby M. Cullom, was started for Springfield, Ills., on a train leaving at 11 45 a. m. After funeral services during which his body will lie in the Illinois state house, he will be buried there.

Dr. Charles Wood, a Presbyterian clergyman, and a close friend of the former senator was telling today how Mr. Cullom had changed his belief in eternity after writing his memoirs. The former senator concluded that work with an expression of doubt that he had found anything in his reading of the scriptures to warrant belief in a hereafter.

In the last few moments his feelings changed completely, said Dr. Wood. "He told me he believed in God and Christ and immortality and added: 'I want to make at the first opportunity a statement of my staple creed, to be inserted after the last chapter of my recollections, to correct the doubt expressed on a dark day when the light was dim.'"

CONDITION CRITICAL

Jamestown, N. Y., Jan. 29.—Postmaster J. W. Putnam, the victim of Edward Beardsley, the Summerdale outlaw, was in a critical condition today. The bullet wound in the groin is the more serious of the two received when he was attempting to take away Beardsley's children.

LAWMAKERS

day by Price Russell, executive clerk of Governor Cox.

W. L. Finley, Democratic state chairman another witness, said he took the initiative in hiring men to investigate "referendum frauds." These men worked in several counties, he said. Representative Warnes of Holmes county was particularly interested in this investigation because he was the author of the Warnes law which one of the measures involved in the referendum Finley said.

Secretary of State Graves, another witness, said Warnes was employed about six weeks in the automobile department of the state and was designated as an "automobile inspector." His duties, he said were to investigate whether automobile owners were using license tags as prescribed by law. He was limited to no special territory. For this work, according to Mr. Graves' testimony, Warnes received $100 a month and traveling expenses. His salary was paid on the regular pay roll but his expenses were not paid until after he had severed his connection with the department. Warnes also was to investigate the alleged referendum, frauds, Graves said, but never reported any results of this investigation to him.

Mr. Graves said the efficiency of an automobile inspector was judged by the number of applications for license that came in from the cities where he was working. "When applications quit coming in, Warnes was let go," Graves said.

With reference to Representative Orrison of Franklin, Graves said he investigated the law and decided that Orrison would not be violating it by holding his position in the state automobile department.

Orrison drew only one salary from the state besides that for his services as a member of the legislature and that was in the capacity as "chauffeur clerk."

In response to a question from Chairman Kramer, Graves said he made all of his own appointments and was accountable to no one, so long as he kept within the appropriation allowed for maintenance of his department.

He also said he made no recommendations to any other departments that certain men be appointed.

Representative Warnes was not recalled before the committee today, but he made a statement saying he did not testify that he drew no salary while working for the automobile department. "I was not asked if I drew salary for that work," Warnes said. "I was asked if I drew any money for the work I done for the automobile department and I said I drew expenses."

State Superintendent of Banks Lattanner, on the witness stand today said Warnes drew $250 a month for liquidating affairs of the Beech City bank. He also testified that Representative Black of Hamilton applied for a position and that Black was employed "in adjusting matters of defunct banks."

For this work, Lattanner said Black drew $3,278.40 in fees and expenses. Black is still working in connection with the affairs of the Second National Bank of Cincinnati, the witness said.

Frank Davis of the Attorney General's department gave Lattanner an oral opinion. Lattanner testified which was to the effect that Black could do the work in connection with the banks without violating the law.

Representative Dier of Mahoning county asked the committee to call Representative Appenzeller, of Clark county, and ask him if he was employed by the state highway department.

Members of the investigating committee said today that Gov. Cox and Attorney General Hoxan may be called before the committee.

Five of the 48 bills introduced in both House and Senate of the legislature since the special session opened a week ago last Monday, have been passed by both houses.

They have passed the House and eight have passed the Senate. Two of these, the Welch bill dictating the number of state reports to be printed, and the Ryhne bill providing for the issuance of duplicate warrants by the state auditor to replace those lost were amended in the Senate and will have to be reconsidered by the House.

The other measures passed by both houses and now awaiting the governor's signature are the Eling bill, allowing interchangeable use of the terms "college" and "academy" and "university" drawn mainly for Wooster University; the Haas bill, permitting Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, to revise its system of electing trustees to accord with conference redistricting; and the Broadstone bill, specifying that trustees of the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors orphans home at Xenia, may include board and lodging for teachers in contracts.

The bills which have passed the House and now are up for consideration in the Senate, provide: Surplus from automobile license fees to be expended by state highway department; United States senators to be elected by direct vote of the people; penalties for notaries who fail to swear; appropriation of $100,000 for Ohio exhibit at Panama-Pacific exposition; stronger law against perjury in initiative and referendum petitions; safety equipment in mines; prohibition of solid blasting in mines; establishment of conservancy districts for flood protection, irrigation or drainage; and uniform scale of salary for common pleas judges.

The measures which the Senate has passed and which now are ready for action in the House provide: Funds of all departments of state and educational institutions supported by the state must be paid in to the state treasury weekly; correction of error in judicial law, allowing a common pleas judge in Seneca county, miners to be paid for all material mined; official seals to bear coat of arms; safeguards for initiative and referendum, with emergency clause; permission to erect additions to school buildings of same material of which original structure is made; authority for governor to cede part of lake front at Cleveland to the city; and reduction of age limit at which girls may get schooling certificates from 18 to 16.

Chance that the Senate might eliminate county school supervision from the educational reform program was minimized today when the Senate committee on public education killed Senator Weyand's supervision bill which provided only for district supervision, by a vote of four to three.

Senators Hudson, Haas, Lloyd and Cahill voted to disapprove the bill. Senators Weyand and Broadstone and Howard voted to report it favorably. The last two are Republicans. The committee will approve the Lory bill, with minor amendments.

Representative of Humane societies appeared before the Senate education committee today to protest against a provision of the Lory school supervision bill passed yesterday by the House, which they said would deprive humane societies of thousands of dollars now derived annually from county fees.

John J. Jones, general agent of the Cleveland Humane Society, declared the measure would mean a loss of $5,000 a year to his society, and would deprive it of services of three agents who investigate the cases of non-support of children. The Lory bill provides that all unexpended balances of the "sheep claim" fund shall be given the general fund to help meet drafts on this fund for county school supervision. Under the present law, this balance is given to humane societies by the county commissioners.

Senator Friebohn proposed an amendment which was adopted by the committee, allowing county commissioners to use their discretion in deciding whether the balance should be given humane societies or placed in the general fund.

Public hearing on the humane miners pay bill will be held before the House mines and mining committee Monday evening the committee will report it out Tuesday and final action will be taken by the House early next Wednesday morning according to plans of House leaders announced today.

BAKER'S WAGON DEMOLISHED BY NUMBER 2 TRUCK

The delivery wagon of John Flanagan was demolished. Driver Joseph Dolan, 22, suffered cuts on the ear and lips, bread and cookies were scattered over the street at Webb and East Main streets at 11 o'clock Thursday morning when Fire Truck No. 2 driven by William Driscoll struck the rear end of the wagon. The truck escaped damage.

The Flanagan wagon had stopped in front of the Phelan grocery headed east with the rear wheels some distance from the curb. The fire truck was responding to an alarm from Beuna Vista and Canal streets and was being driven west in Main street. Driver Driscoll swung his team toward the center of the street to pass the Flanagan wagon but the rear wheels of his truck caught on the rails of the street car track and the rear end of the fire vehicle skidded into the baker's wagon. The wagon was broken in twain and Dolan, who was taking bread from a box inside was mixed up in the debris. His lips and ear were cut with broken glass but he is not seriously hurt.

WOULD PLACE ALL DRUNKARDS ON PROBATION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Boston, Jan. 29.—The abandonment of jail sentences for intoxication, except in cases of criminal and unmanageable inebriates is urged in the report today by a commission appointed by the last legislature to investigate drunkenness in this state. "In place of imprisonment," says the report, "we believe that the probation officers and courts of the state should make wider and more uniform use of their right to release without arraignment, persons arrested for drunkenness. They should generally be placed on probation. The fine should be ordered only where the burden of it will fall upon the defendant."

The report recommends an extension of hospital treatment for inebriates.

"In the light of existing public sentiment," the report adds, "the commission is convinced of the expediency of attempting statewide prohibition of the drink traffic in this commonwealth."

COL. GOETHALS WILL ACCEPT GOVERNORSHIP

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Jan. 29.—President Wilson sent the nomination of Col. George W. Goethals to be governor of the Panama canal zone after April 1st, to the Senate today.

"I am not able to give out the terms of Col. Goethals' acceptance at the present time," said Secretary Garrison, "but it was whole and complete. When President Wilson sends his name to the Senate I shall probably be able to make an interesting statement."

As chairman of the Isthmian canal commission, to Col. Goethals now is paid $15,000 a year. The Panama canal act fixes the salary of the governor at $10,000. Representative Britton of Illinois today introduced a bill to make the salary $15,000 so long as Col. Goethals hold the office.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Jan. 29.—Secretary Garrison announced today that Col. Goethals has signified his intention of accepting the governorship of the Panama canal zone to be proffered him by President Wilson. Mr. Garrison intimated that Col. Goethals' acceptance was unqualified.

WOULD SETTLE WITH DEPOSITORS OF SIEGEL BANK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Jan. 29.—Depositors of Henry Siegel & Company, which recently went into receivers hands, have been informed that the bankers offer them a cash payment of thirty per cent of money due if the depositors will accept notes for the balance backed by about $4,000,000 of the common stock of the Siegel Stores corporation.

The offer was made yesterday by legal representatives of Henry Siegel and Frank E. Fogel to counsel representing a committee of creditors. The amount offered aggregates about $750,000 in cash.

"The truth is mighty," quoted the Wise Guy. "Yes, mighty disagreeable sometimes," added the Simple Man.
